

DUAL ENROLLMENT PROGRAM

Your Pathway to American Education

ENROLL AS AN
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY STUDENT
WHILE STILL IN
HIGH SCHOOL IN VIETNAM

APU - American International School

1

WHO?

APU International School (APU) and the University of Missouri-Kansas City (USA) - also known as UMKC have joined together to create a unique program for high school students and recent graduates in Vietnam. This is the only program of its kind in Asia.

APU has over a decade of providing US quality education in Vietnam. UMKC is among the top 200 National Universities in the United States - a country with over 4,000 colleges and universities.

2

WHAT IS DUAL ENROLLMENT?

Students accepted into the program can earn a semester, a year, or even more of US university credits while still in high school or a recent high school graduate.

All courses receive official grades and transcripts from UMKC and are transferable to thousand of US and worldwide colleges and universities .

3

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

The Dual Enrollment Program has high academic standards and entrance requirements. Students must be at least a junior in high school with a 3.0 GPA and proven English language proficiency. An entrance exam is required for all non-APU students.

4

WHAT KIND OF COURSES ARE OFFERED?

The Dual Enrollment courses are just like American college and university courses and include English, Math, Social Science, History, Communication, and Science - all part of the general education core in U.S. universities. All instructors have the highest academic credentials from outstanding American universities.

5

WHO CAN ENROLL?

Preference is given to full-time APU students and recent graduates. However, a limited number of afternoon and Saturday Dual Enrollment courses are offered for students and recent graduates from high quality high schools in Vietnam.

6

HOW DO I GET STARTED?

Contact the APU Dual Enrollment Admission Office for further details and an application. Classes begin every 7 weeks and you can get your jump start on earning an American university education while still a student in Vietnam.
